stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects . PORTER in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extense. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations me given, the accente being carefully worked on the best principle hitherto attained. The Lypo graphy displays the success of an attempt to make the Ohinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have her cargo engaged, will have quick dispatch for heretofore characterized Chinese publications.
